RE: The State vs. Nathan Miles Ginter
Case Numbers: 2022-GS-40-5213, 2022-GS-40-5214, 2022-GS-40-5215 and 2022-GS-40-5216

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

Please find herewith, a clocked copy of my January 6th Notice of Motion and Motion to be Relieved, a Certificate of Service avowing that I served Mr. Ginter by mail today, and a copy of the receipt and tracking information received from the post office for filing. I apologize for overlooking the need to serve the Motion and provide the Court with proof thereof. I filed the motion when I was out of the Country and was unable to mail the it to him at the time. When I returned, I simply overlooked doing so. Hopefully this will cure any deficiencies related to this matter.

I also spoke with SCCID yesterday and I believe that they are prepared to go forward with representing Mr. Ginter in this appeal.

Please let me know if there is anything else that needs to be done in order to protect my client's appellate rights.

Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

Brett A. Perry

APPEAL FROM RICHLAND COUNTY
Court of General Sessions

Robert E. Hood, Circuit Court Judge

Case Numbers:

2022-GS-40-5214
2022-GS-40-5215

The State,

Respondent,

v.

Nathan Miles Ginter,

Appellant.

NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION TO BE RELIEVED
AS COUNSEL AND TO HAVE INDIGENT COUNSEL APPOINTED

On or about June 12, 2024, the Appellant was convicted of four charges of Unlawful Neglect of a Child, in the Richland County Court of General Sessions. Due to his absence from the state, the sentence was not imposed until October 22, 2024. At sentencing the Defendant announced to the Court that he no longer wanted the undersigned to represent him.

Although the undersigned Counsel's representation of the Appellant specifically does not include any representation for an appeal from a conviction in General Sessions Court, a Notice of Appeal has been timely filed pursuant to Rule 203 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, in order to protect the Appellant's right to an appeal.

When approached by Counsel, the Appellant refused to complete and sign an Affidavit of Indigency.

The Appellant has been incarcerated for an extended period of time and upon information and belief, is in fact indigent.

Accordingly, the undersigned hereby moves for an Order of this Honorable Court, relieving him as Counsel for the Appellant, and should the Court find it appropriate to do so, appointing Counsel to represent the Appellant in this appeal. Should the Court find that the Appellant is not indigent, the undersigned would pray for an Order relieving him as Counsel and issuing its Order requiring the Appellant to retain private Counsel or to represent himself pro se.

Respectfully submitted,

s/ Brett A. Perry
