1 A. Correct. He opened up a back
2 commercial end.

3 Q. Now, your brother, Joe Mason, Jr., what
4 was his role in the company, if you could outline
5 that from the beginning?

6 A. He moved up earlier than me to watch
7 the construction of the building of the Surfside
8 store. Then we both went in. Again, I did the
9 accounting and retail sales, and he basically did
10 the operation of the one location.

11 Q. After Mr. Levine came on board, how
12 often was he present in Surfside or in the 13 different offices in terms of performing his
14 services?

15 A. I'd say approximately a week to two
16 weeks a year.

17 Q. And was that consistent through the 18 years?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Now, from the time that this first
21 store opened until July of 2008, who pretty much
22 handled the day-to-day financial operations of the 23 business?

24 A. Joe, Jr.

25 Q. And who made the operational decisions

1 during that same period of time -- from the time
2 the first store opened until July of 2008, who was
3 primarily responsible for the daily operational
4 decisions of the business?

5 A. Joe, Jr.

6 Q. Now, were there certain periods of time
7 where Mr. Mason, Jr., would leave the company's
8 employment?

9 A. There would be times my brother would
10 walk off the job, yes.

11 Q. Do you know how many times he walked
12 off the job?

13 A. At least a handful, if not more.

14 Q. And what would happen? Would anyone
15 know where he had gone or why he had left?

16 A. My father would be in contact with him.

17 Q. Would he eventually come back?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Until this last time when he quit?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And was he allowed to pretty much walk
22 back in and pick up where he left off and assume
23 the reigns of running the business?

24 A. Yes, business as usual.

25 Q. Now, were there issues between the two

1 of you where Joe, Jr., and you did not get along?

2 A. All families have issues, so there were
3 issues.

4 Q. There were some issues. And were there
5 times when he would refuse to speak to you?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Were there times he would yell at you?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Did he ever threaten you?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Ms. St. Blanchard, we've heard a bit of 12 testimony about these promissory notes that were on 13 the books. I'd like to ask you a couple questions
14 about those notes. Let's talk about that first
15 promissory note. At the time that note was 16 created, what did you know about it?

17 A. Nothing.

18 Q. When did you learn about this
19 transaction and what it all meant in terms of what
20 was being done with the books?

21 A. Back then?

22 Q. Right, but when did -- well, when did
23 you first learn that the promissory note had been
24 created?

25 A. I believe I first learned when the

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. Was there an issue with a second
3 promissory note? Were you asked to sign a
4 promissory note later?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Tell us about that note and what you
7 did.

8 A. It was roughly late '07. Joe, Jr.,
9 came into my office with promissory notes and asked
10 me to sign two promissory notes.

11 Q. And what was your reaction?

12 A. I told him absolutely not, that I had
13 just gotten all these letters from his attorneys
14 and I wasn't signing anything.

15 Q. So you knew what -- you finally learned
16 about the first promissory note that something was
17 going on with that. Is that correct?

18 A. That is correct.

19 Q. And you didn't want to sign a second
20 one?

21 A. That is correct.

22 Q. What happened when you told him you
23 were not going to sign that one?

24 A. He stormed out of my office.

25 Q. Was anyone else present when he
