Re: State v. Xabian Uronie Bailey, Appellate Case No. 2024-001526

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

The brief of appellant and designation of matter to be included in the record on appeal in the above titled case are due to be served and filed with this Court on February 14, 2025. In preparing the initial brief of appellant, I discovered that portions of the September 3, 2024 transcript were missing. Pursuant to the attached email, a request for the missing portions of the transcript was placed on February 6, 2025. This is a request for the time limits to be held in abeyance pending receipt of the complete September 3, 2024 transcript. Appellant has requested two extensions of time to file the initial brief of appellant to date.

I am available should any questions arise in connection with this matter or if any additional information is needed.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Gary H. Johnson", with a long horizontal line extending to the right.

Gary H. Johnson
Appellate Defender

Della,

Today, Legal Eagle was assigned your transcript request in the above referenced matter.

Based upon our review of the records, it appears this transcript will be approximately 135 pages long. The following was indicated on the request from:

- Standard Delivery (60 Days) Morning half needed for 9/3/2024 hearing
- PDF/Email Requested

The estimated standard delivery cost for this transcript is [REDACTED]

Please note that the page estimate is not guaranteed. The price indicated above is an approximation based on the audio length. The actual cost and page count may vary due to several factors including but not limited to speech rate, side bars, Q&A v Colloquy, and hearing type. A final invoice will be sent when the transcript is completed.

Once you have authorized us to proceed by responding to this email, we will place your transcript inline for production with a 60-day due date, although transcripts are usually completed much earlier. If you have any questions, please let us know.

Thank you,

Velvet Mills
