Re: First American Title v. Michele Refosco
(Appellate Case No: 2012-213001)

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

I am writing to advise that the parties to the above matter have reached a tentative agreement to resolve this case. Preparation and execution of the final settlement documents and consummation of the settlement has not yet been accomplished, but it is certainly anticipated. Once the foregoing is accomplished, it is our intention to file the necessary Motion and/or documentation with this Court seeking dismissal of the appeal.

Again, the settlement has not yet been consummated, but on behalf of the parties, I did want to write the Court to advise that we anticipate that this appeal will be amicably resolved and is presently in the process of being resolved and therefore we would respectfully request that the Court refrain from further action on the appeal at present, to the extent that is possible.

Thanking the Court for its consideration, and with best regards, I remain

J. Dwight Hudson, Esq.
