Re: Case: Randy Beverly v Bucksville Farms
Lower Court Case No: 2009CP2601909
Appellate Case No: 2012-212984

Dear Ms. Allen:

Thank you for speaking with me on Wednesday, September 18, 2013 regarding the above matter. Attached is the Notice dated September 16, 2013 just received yesterday advising of November 5, 2013, 11:20am arguments.

As we discussed, it turns out that my wife has been scheduled for surgery in Durham, NC and there will be several days of recuperation for that surgery in North Carolina and I will need to be with her during that entire period. November 5 is probably a day or 2 early for the anticipated recuperation period and I would appreciate the Court looking into the possibility of giving me until November 7, or November 6 at the earliest, in order to allow me time to return with my wife to Horry County from North Carolina and then to travel to Columbia for the oral arguments.

As we also discussed, this matter of surgery has arisen since the time we cleared these dates some time ago and I apologize for the inconvenience. However, anything you can do to give me the additional time as requested, would be much appreciated.

With best regards, I remain

Respectfully yours,

J. Dwight Hudson
