RE; Appellate Case No: 2023-001002

Dear Clerk,

At this present moment please find enclosed within this letter of request an amended Brief that I filed in order to have submitted to the Court of Appeals that I pray your office would please attach the Designation of Matter from my previous brief that I resubmitted back with my motion to obtain a leave of Court has been denied last month of this year where I was ordered to resubmitted my record on appeal in which has placed me in an awkward situation, because I don't have copies of that last Brief of the Designation of matters to be included within the record that's why I amend my brief and pray that you can assist me attaching the Designation of matters from that last brief for me so I can meet my deadline stated within the Court order that I received last month order me 20 days from the date that it was dated to resubmitted my record on appeal. So without any further delay can you please assist me a provide me back with a response or clock stamp copy of this letter of request. If possible a copy of Designation of Matter

Please E-mail to General Counsel if needed with the

your Truly
