Dear Clerk of the Court of Appeals,

I am writing to formally request that you review the submission of correspondence filed with your office regarding improper captioning and violations of Rule 267 in my case. I believe these issues have a material impact on the proceedings, and I respectfully seek confirmation that the concerns raised in my submission will be addressed accordingly.

Please advise on the status of my submission and whether any further action is required on my part to ensure proper review and correction of these procedural errors.

Thank you for your time and attention to this matter. I appreciate your assistance.

Sincerely,

Randal Freeman
