Motion for Stay or Injunction Pending Appeal

Pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 62, this ProSe Defendant moves for this Court to stay Lexington County Courthouse November 14, 2024 judgement order and January 29, 2025 denial to vacate judgment order to prevent further foreclosure and auctioning activities pending appeal completion. Copies of both orders were previously included with the Notice of Removal on file with this Court.

As discussed in the Notice of Appeal [Second Amendment] submitted to the South Carolina Court of Appeals on February 2, 2025 (2 pages; See Appendix A, which also includes Appellant Letter to the Court (9 pages)):

...Staying Judgement for Sale or Delivery of Land: Pursuant to SC Code 18-9-170 (2023), the below signed appellant, during the possession of such property, will not commit or suffer to be committed any waste thereon and if the judgment be affirmed, will pay the value of the use and occupation of the property from the time of the execution of the undertaking until the delivery of possession thereof pursuant to the judgment, not exceeding a sum to be fixed by a judge of the court by which judgment was rendered and which shall be specified in the undertaking. When the judgment directs the sale of land to satisfy a mortgage thereon or other lien, the undertaking shall prove that in case the judgment appealed from be affirmed and the land be final sold for less than the judgment debt and costs then the appellant shall pay for any waste committed or suffered to be committed on the land and shall pay a reasonable rental value for the use and occupation of the land from the time of the execution of the undertaking to the time of the sale, but not exceeding the amount of such deficiency, which sum shall be duly entered as a payment on the judgement; and in case the land shall be unimproved land, then in any action or proceedings now pending or hereafter begun in any of the courts of this State the undertaking shall further provide for the payment by appellant, if the judgment be affirmed, or any taxes due at the time of the appeal or already paid by the mortgagee, or becoming due during the pendency of the appeal, and also for the payment by appellant of the interest on the debt falling due during the pendency of such appeal. Due to the presence of criminal activity occurring and this Defendants in forma pauperis status, this court is requested to utilize the pending $3 million judgement in lieu of the requested two sureties.

The undersigned now understands that a stay is not automatic in this case. However, given the strong, compelling evidence of fraudulent activity detailed in the Notice of Removal, a stay is warranted in the interest of justice. Moreover, financial responsibility is evident, as the contested property, 123 Cardinal Pines Drive, Lexington, South Carolina 29073 (valued at approximately $230,000, judgement order is for $150,213.73), is occupied by the undersigned with a strong security system through CPI Security; while the undersigned remains a resident of New York (having left South Carolina for safety concerns). However, as discussed in the Notice of Removal, evidence shows that CPI Security may be involved with the fraud, thus law enforcement has been notified. Therefore, the judgement (i.e. acquisition of said property) is secure and not in danger of loss. Irreparable harm will be done if a stay is not granted halting the acutioning of this property, which has been a home of the undersigned for 18 years. Lastly, granting a stay or injunction is in the best interest of the public as noted in this January 31, 2025 500pm correspondence:

...If this court and plaintiff proceeds with sale despite notice of appeal, its considered theft. Thus danger to public as they would be encouraged to participate in fraudulent activity...

Again, the undersigned now understands that a stay is not automatic. However, despite the February 2, 2025 submission to the Court of Appeals addressing the stay, Lexington County Courthouse still proceeded with the auction on February 3, 2025, now labeling it a preliminary auction, while adding a final auction date for March 2025. It is the duty of this Court to determine if Lexington County Courthouse actions were proper or intended to cause harm and distress given that a stay request had been filed the day prior.

Conclusion

For the foregoing reasons, the United States District Court for the District of South Carolina should grant a stay or injunction to Lexington County Courthouse November 14, 2024 judgement order and January 29, 2025 denial to vacate judgment order to prevent further foreclosure and auctioning activities pending appeal completion.

Appellant Letter to the Court

Dear South Carolina Court of Appeals:

Fraudulent activity appears to still be in progress; both federal and state authorities have (and continue to be) notified. Criminal charges are requested.

1. Your Honor James O. Spence denied this Defendant's motion to vacate judgment on January 29, 2025 436pm. This Defendant was not notified but it appears the Plaintiff was notified as a Master Order from Plaintiff was created for Judge Spence to sign without Defense notification. This is yet another unlawful breach in standard procedure.
2. Not having heard anything from the Court or the Plaintiff, on January 30, 2025 556am, this Defendant sent the following email inquiring about Judge Spence's ruling:

CRIME IN PROGRESSLAW ENFORCEMENT ASSISTANCE REQUESTED.

Good Morning:

1. Judge Spence, have you ruled yet? I have not been notified however, I notice US Bank filed a Master Order 1.29 25 1636, which appears to indicate your judgement remains with the Plaintiff?

PLEASE PROFILE JUDGE SPENCE RULING ONLINE.

2. Public Index shows multiple filings but NO documents are indexed. I repeat, ALL DOCUMENTS HAVE BEEN REMOVED.

<https://publicindex.sccourts.org/lexington/publicindex/> filings

CLERK OF COURT, PLEASE RETURN ALL DOCUMENTS ONLINE.

As you have done before, Clerk of Court, please e-file all electronically submitted documents with both the family court (0791562) and foreclosure (2022CP3200784) cases.

Respectfully, Tracie

3. Only then was Judge Spence's 13-page order for the Plaintiff (denying Motion to Vacate Judgement for foreclosure), was delivered to Defense via email on January 30, 2025 at 1131am with a confidentiality clause instead of being indexed online as previous orders (from both Judge Spence and Judge Walter McLeod), despite this order being in response to a public hearing. A Request for Production was issued.
4. Having never received guidance from Lexington County Courthouse regarding the appeals process, this Defendant research revealed the Lexington County Municipal Court was the place to submit appeal documents to. Thus, on January 31, 2025 755am, amongst other associated documents, an electronic Notice of Appeal with submitted to all parties, Lexington County Courthouse, and Lexington County Municipal Court.

Judge Spence 207pm email was received. In summary:

1. Appeals are per SC Court of Appeals.
2. Defendant appears to be applying for federal and state jurisdiction.
3. Plaintiff to review post Order denying Motion to Vacate and notify court if Plaintiff believes valid reason to stay Monday's sale is present.

Defendants response:

1. Please response to all. Defendants privacy notice removed.
2. Email from municipal court recieved at 807am, indicated file with municipal court
3. Note dates of SCOTUS filings, not new. Merely returned documents due to suspected criminal activity. This court ignoring SCOTUS filings in past, prompted state level filings.
4. If this court and plaintiff proceeds with sale despite notice of appeal, its considered theft. Thus danger to public as they would be encouraged to participate in fraudulent activity. I request the Authorities to move in IMMEDIATELY to arrest those attempting to harm and defraud the public by the sale of STOLEN property.

The court of Appeals is included on this email

Clerk of Courts, please file this document and all attachments.

9. Now, having additional, though limited, time to review the South Carolina Court of Appeals website, I now submit the second amended Notice of Appeal and this Appellant Letter to the Court.

10. Lastly, please be advised of the following:

- a. A criminal complaint has been submitted against Judge Spence.
- b. Federal documents have been returned to the Supreme Court of the United States due to apparent criminal activity occurring.
- c. Amended Order to Show Cause/Restraining Order(s) and Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act (RICO) case has been filed and pending in New York. It appears criminal interference is the cause of the delay in processing. Federal Authorities are aware.
