But it's cool. I want you to keep your job. Yet, I saw that they redacted the emails and made it appear as if I didn't have you on the original email when they got the first documents I sent. I will take this L, but God has the last day so. I did my diligence, but it's a trump agenda for now in law and politics. But God. Navy Federal knows the truth in this entire situation. I will bounce back. But the law of SC stands at 7 yrs and not 10. So you guys need to adjust that fact and make this clear to them. It's been against SC State law to hold a judgement for ten years. They're being watched by the feds I heard and I hope so
