SC Court of Appeals

Dear Clerk

In the above mentioned case I had just wanted to notify the Honorable Courts that the 59(c) and 59(b) motions filed with the Notice of Intent have NOT been ruled upon in the Court of Common Pleas. As a Matter of OTTEN-V-OTTEN 337 SE2d 207. The Order I received for the dismissal of my case was NOT signed or dated so I moved pursuant to Rule 59(c) & (B) to modify the Order to preserve for Appellate review or get a new hearing and filed Notice of Appeal just to cover my own interests due to the Order was NOT signed or dated. Under Rule 59(f) when such a motion is made the time for Appeal from judgment begins to run from the time of the Order grants or ruling on those motions. Those motions were NEVER ruled upon so can the Court of Appeals REMAND to the Court of Common Pleas until these properly filed motions are ruled upon. Can I please receive a clock stamp copy of this letter to prove delivery and for my files,

This 28th day of February 2025
