Re: Walters Construction, Inc. v. Stanley J. Sledziona and Sharon Sledziona
Case No.: 2011-CP-18-1684
Appellate Case No.: 2013-001357
Our File No.: 4170-001/002

Dear South Carolina Court Administration:

We ordered the transcript from the court reporter on June 13, 2013. The Court Reporter contacted us and informed us of the cost to produce the transcript and we tendered a check to her on or about July 5, 2013. My records show that the check cleared on or about July 30, 2013. Attached is an email from court administrator Desiree Allen indicating that the transcript due date is September 8, 2013. I anticipate having it next week and will notify the court if it is not received.

With best regards, I am

Sincerely yours

Ms. Volpe's monthly reports a request date of July 8 (this is based on when satisfactory payment arrangements are made, which is the standard). She has 60 days to produce a transcript. Therefore, the transcript is not due until September 8. Please contact me if you have received the transcript by that date, and I will contact her. Thank you.

Ms. Allen –

We ordered a transcript from Rolayne Volpe on June 13, 2013 in the above referenced matter. Ms. Volpe contacted us and informed us of the cost to produce the transcript and we tendered a check to her on or about July 5, 2013. Our records show that the check cleared on or about July 30, 2013. We have not received the transcript and are now past the deadline. We have 4 days to respond to the court. Please let me know the status of this transcript as soon as possible and if we should request an extension.

Thanks,
