Dear Ms. Brandon,

I have received your request for the transcript of the above-mentioned hearing. The cost to prepare such transcript is $327.25.

Pursuant to Rule 607, the total amount indicated above is due for the transcript you have requested. Upon receipt of the amount due, certified check or money order or business/firm check (no personal checks) made out to and sent to Natalie Dahl, PO Box 762, Conway, SC 29526, your transcript request will be placed in line for production. Please include with payment the name of the case and the date and the judge's name as I get multiple requests.

Under the South Carolina Court Rules, a court reporter has 60 days from the date of request to complete the transcript. In this instance, the 60-day period will be determined based on the date the total amount due has been received. You will be notified if any extensions are approved by Court Administration beyond 60 days. With my current workload, however, I estimate I can have this within three weeks' time.

If you have any other questions, I'd be happy to answer them.

Sincerely,

Natalie Dahl, RPR

I am only concerned with the time as as to when it is ordered .I only have ten days to order the transcript after I serve the respondents for appellate court. In my case I served the respondent on February 28th, 2025. So I have 10 days from that date to order a transcript, that being, the ten days would fall on February 10th. I am only concerned with how the Courts view when it is ordered.

I understand about delivery and time of the transcripts and am not worried about that as it gives me more time to get things together.

So Only the time considered ordered by the courts is my question. I mailed the check today at the post office where the PO box is located so I am sure you will receive it soon.

Thank you,
Stephanie Hatton

Dear Ms. Brandon,

I have received your request for the transcript of the above-mentioned hearing. The cost to prepare such transcript is $327.25.

Pursuant to Rule 607, the total amount indicated above is due for the transcript you have requested. Upon receipt of the amount due, certified check or money order or business/firm check (no personal checks) made out to and sent to Natalie Dahl, PO Box 762, Conway, SC 29526, your transcript request will be placed in line for production. Please include with payment the name of the case and the date and the judge's name as I get multiple requests.

Under the South Carolina Court Rules, a court reporter has 60 days from the date of request to complete the transcript. In this instance, the 60-day period will be determined based on the date the total amount due has been received. You will be notified if any extensions are approved by Court Administration beyond 60 days. With my current workload, however, I estimate I can have this within three weeks' time.

If you have any other questions, I'd be happy to answer them.

Sincerely,

Natalie Dahl, RPR

I will start it this weekend then. But as to the ten days' notice to appeals and all, that is way over my head. I have no idea. My thought would be if you sent the email that I received your request and how long it will take to get it completed, then you show that tracking number, I would think that would be evidence that you had requested it in ten days. Definitely keep this email chain, and in the meantime, I will do my best to get it to you in less than three weeks. I have a couple of them to do before I get to it, but I will work diligently.

I am only concerned with the time as as to when it is ordered .I only have ten days to order the transcript after I serve the respondents for appellate court. In my case I served the respondent on February 28th, 2025. So I have 10 days from that date to order a transcript, that being, the ten days would fall on February 10th. I am only concerned with how the Courts view when it is ordered.

I understand about delivery and time of the transcripts and am not worried about that as it gives me more time to get things together.

So only the time considered ordered by the courts is my question. I mailed the check today at the post office where the PO box is located so I am sure you will receive it soon.

Thank you,

Ok thank you , dont do anything special for me, I was just wondering when the order date was so that is good enough. Please dont feel pressured as that was not my intention to push. The email as well as the tracking number is good enough for them to show it was ordered and paid for before that date.

I am only concerned with the time as as to when it is ordered .I only have ten days to order the transcript after I serve the respondents for appellate court. In my case I served the respondent on February 28th, 2025. So I have 10 days from that date to order a transcript, that being, the ten days would fall on February 10th. I am only concerned with how the Courts view when it is ordered.

I understand about delivery and time of the transcripts and am not worried about that as it gives me more time to get things together.

So Only the time considered ordered by the courts is my question. I mailed the check today at the post office where the PO box is located so I am sure you will receive it soon.

Thank you,
Stephanie Hatton

Dear Ms. Brandon,

I have received your request for the transcript of the above-mentioned hearing. The cost to prepare such transcript is $327.25.

Pursuant to Rule 607, the total amount indicated above is due for the transcript you have requested. Upon receipt of the amount due, certified check or money order or business/firm check (no personal checks) made out to and sent to Natalie Dahl, PO Box 762, Conway, SC 29526, your transcript request will be placed in line for production. Please include with payment the name of the case and the date and the judge's name as I get multiple requests.

Under the South Carolina Court Rules, a court reporter has 60 days from the date of request to complete the transcript. In this instance, the 60-day period will be determined based on the date the total amount due has been received. You will be notified if any extensions are approved by Court Administration beyond 60 days. With my current workload, however, I estimate I can have this within three weeks' time.

If you have any other questions, I'd be happy to answer them.

I am only concerned with the time as as to when it is ordered .I only have ten days to order the transcript after I serve the respondents for appellate court. In my case I served the respondent on February 28th, 2025. So I have 10 days from that date to order a transcript, that being, the ten days would fall on February 10th. I am only concerned with how the Courts view when it is ordered.

I understand about delivery and time of the transcripts and am not worried about that as it gives me more time to get things together.

So Only the time considered ordered by the courts is my question. I mailed the check today at the post office where the PO box is located so I am sure you will receive it soon.

Thank you,
Stephanie Hatton

I hope I am understanding correctly your question. Once payment is received, that's when the time starts. But with my current workload, I think I can have this within three weeks instead of the 60 days allowed.

Is that what you're asking?

I am sending the money today via USPS and just wondering what the date of order will be? To see if I am within the timeline.

Oh, I'm sorry, I forgot you did ask about that. We do not have recordings. I took this down stenographically.

Dear Ms. Brandon,
I have received your request for the transcript of the above-mentioned hearing. The cost to prepare such transcript is $327.25.

Pursuant to Rule 607, the total amount indicated above is due for the transcript you have requested. Upon receipt of the amount due, certified check or money order or business/firm check (no personal checks) made out to and sent to Natalie Dahl, PO Box 762, Conway, SC 29526, your transcript request will be placed in line for production. Please include with payment the name of the case and the date and the judge's name as I get multiple requests.

Under the South Carolina Court Rules, a court reporter has 60 days from the date of request to complete the transcript. In this instance, the 60-day period will be determined based on the date the total amount due has been received. You will be notified if any extensions are approved by Court Administration beyond 60 days. With my current workload, however, I estimate I can have this within three weeks' time.

If you have any other questions, I'd be happy to answer them.

Sincerely,

Natalie Dahl, RPR
