RE: Thompson #80681 v. SCDC
Appellate Case No. 2024-000665

Dear Ms. Kitchings,

On Tuesday March 11, 2025 I received an Order from the Court of Appeals stamped as filed on March 6, 2025. This Order granted the Department's motion to dismiss this appeal as moot. I find this order to be premature as I received from the Tyger River mailroom on February 26, 2025 two brown envelopes, one of which contained the Department's Motion and the other contained the Department's Final Brief and Designation of Matter. According to the SCACR 208, paragraph 3, Appellant has 10 days from service of the Respondent's Brief to reply and according to SCACR 224, paragraph e, Appellant has 10 days from service of a Motion to respond. Copies of the aforementioned envelopes are enclosed. On Friday March 7, 2025 I mailed through the Tyger River mailroom an Appellant's Response and Reply to Respondent's Motion and Brief dated March 6, 2025.

As a pro se litigant I am not as knowledgeable as to proper procedures as a trained lawyer so I am requesting that the Court clarify this issue if possible. I am given to understand that I have until March 16, 2025 to file either a Petition for Rehearing or Reinstatement and will endeavor to do so unless notified by this office or the court otherwise. Your assistance in this matter is greatly appreciated.
