RE: SCCCL v. SCDHEC and Pulte Homes, 2025-000379

Dear Madame Clerk:

I am writing in follow up to our communications with the Court regarding the transcript for the ALC hearing in this case. Given that the hearing on appeal was on dispositive motions with no witnesses or evidence introduced, Appellant does not wish to order the transcript. Pursuant to the Court's instructions, we have confirmed that the Office of Court Administration does not have a transcript. It is our understanding the Court will send a new letter to formally establish the filing deadline for the initial appeal. Please let me know if I am incorrect or if you need anything further from the Appellant at this time.

Thank you very much for your kind cooperation and assistance!

Respectfully,

Monica K. Whalen
