Morgan R Dunn

I'm going to say this as nicely as I can, I don't appreciate the level of disrespect , unprofessionalism it is unacceptable, lying on me to the court saying that I didn't provide Moorland Reserve copies of my Feb 26, 2025 filing not only did I mail copies I also sent email copies on Feb 28, 2025 at 5:22am to Ms Jen Dixon stating here copies because I don't how long it will take for you to the mail, when I mailed them I was out of town. I also don't appreciate the fact the your trying to make me look like a bad person to the court when you don't know anything about me or why this situation that I'm in happened, you have never had a conversation with me, but Ms Jen Dixon and Abby are very well aware of my situation because they have sat right there in the office and witness things when it came to my truck , I have also been very upfront with them from text messages between myself and my employer. I don't have a problem with you trying to do your job but I do have a problem with you thinking that you're just going to blatantly just lie on me, oh yeah that's your job because you're a Lawyer so that gives you the right to LIE no it doesn't. What you need to do is get up off your high horse and stop thinking your better than anyone because you have a law degree no your not better than anyone because your not exempt from being in my situation when it comes to a job you can lose your law license and your job nobody wakes up and wants to be in this situation that I'm in it has been very stressful. And some of us did go to college and study Law. I will be contacting the Bar Association and filing a formal complaint against you because if this is how you operate by lying on people ,you are a disgrace to the court system and the real Lawyers. I also see why all 3 law firm locations, reviews are horrible. If other people were afraid to tell you about yourself, guess what I wasn't. I will be sending over a copy of this email to the court of appeals. Have a nice day. and yes I signed like that so you will know that I'm the one who wrote this email. Now if you have anything to say to me you're more than welcome to do so as I'm Representing myself.
