Dear Sara,

I just spoke to Ms. Scruggs on the phone and she confirmed that she has my prior letters and your OID affidavit. I went over the importance of her completing and mailing you the affidavit immediately, and that if she does not, your office will not be able to engage and that her appeal will be dismissed. She has that information in more than one letter as well. She said that she understood and that she will complete the form, have it notarized, and send it to you today. If you need to follow up Ms. Scruggs' new mailing address is shown below.
