STATEMENTS FOR APPEAL

Notice is hereby given that Tiffany Chabot Appellant does hereby appeal the Administrative Law Courts and the Administrative Law Judge's final order of dismissing Ms. Chabot's case. Order attached.

The Administrative Law court dismissed Ms. Chabot's case. Ms. Chabot complied with all the court orders and were all sent in on time. Ms. Chabot does not have any control over when the mail gets delivered. In fact South Carolina Department of Employment and Workforce actually missed their deadline to file the record on appeal by a day yet it fell on deaf ears of the court and allowed them to file a motion to dismiss. Ms. Chabot filed a reply motion attaching several documents showing the severe issues with the United Postal Service. The South Carolina Department of Employment and Workforce are so supposed to be unbiased but it's simply untrue. An employee wrongfully terminated shall be entitled to benefits. This is not a David versus Goliath it's David versus Goliath and some. The Appellant even if pro se have the absolute right to have a fair and balanced trial. The appellant should not have to fight a government agency to get to the point to get a hearing or trial against a huge corporation.
