Good Morning Denesha,

This is Kimberly Alford. I hope you have been doing well.

I am writing in regards to my now dismissed appeal with the Court, case referenced above.

I am trying to find out if I can file another appeal with SC Court of Appeals based on information I found out yesterday. I came home to a Writ of Ejectment at my door but there was no time marked on the form. I looked into the filings the attorney for The Cloisters presented and found that the Lower Court, Common Pleas, case was dismissed back in December. So there were no overlapping appeals filed as said by the Respondent's attorney. Therefore, an appeal with this court should be accepted and hopefully stay this Writ.

With this information, can I file another appeal?

Thank you for your help,
Kimberly.
