Received, thank you. Yes, I then received this letter and it's just have been a mess the whole time his attorney knew all this information that was sent to him from Eric M Willard never sent it to the appellate attorney Sarah Shippe and then a week after she introduced herself to eric Willard she sends this letter (please see the attachment) this is very hard for me because everything is in the court transcript about not having a statement and not wearing body cam and not taking a statement while in custody, this is a lot. i really need help the sheriff department got a call from the DA office and they told them they don't have anything from 2017 only 2015, then sled said they had nothing and so did the clerk of courts , I'm confused, please see attachments
