Re: 1634 Main, L. P. v. Shirley Hammer v. Howard Hammer, Additional Defendant on Counterclaim
Motion to Extend Time

Dear Mr. Shearouse:

I write this letter to correct an error in the date I put on my correspondence to you on the Motion to Extend. The error was dating the letter September 29, 2013, when the actual writing and mailing of the letter was September 30, 2013. The date error is also on the Motion as well as the Certificate of Service. I respectfully request that correction be made to letter to you, Motion to Extend Time, and Certificate of Service to show correct date of September 30, 2013, on all.

I was able to come to your office briefly yesterday, October 1, 2013. I spoke with Ms. Shealy calling this error to her attention. For personal reasons I was not able to return later in the day or to write you until today.

While the date error may be a moot point for the reasons to be set forth in a response to the Motion to Dismiss, I would appreciate your making the correction as above requested.

I apologize for any inconvenience in regard to my dating error.

Respectfully,

Howard Hammer
