RE: PRO BONO ASSISTANCE

Honorable Howard:

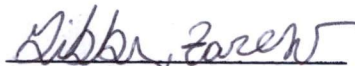

I'm sending this letter in reference to your letter dated March 5, 2025. First off, I'm wrong for my actions that contributed to Mr. SiJohns death and the trauma I caused his family. I embarrassed my Parents, Family; and Community whom helped raise me the correct way.

I earned my High School Diploma, in public high school, and have multiple job training skills. I could have easily gotten a job instead of committing any criminal act first and foremost.

Secondly, I allowed lack of better judgment to set in when I was told by a peer that Mr. SiJohn will be carrying a bag of money, and the money grab would be easy, yet he may have a gun. When I approached Mr. SiJohn it appeared he had something in his hand under the box, which in return I shot him in his side, and fled the scene. Mr. SiJohn was treated and released from the hospital. Sadly, he returned twenty (20) days later with a separate prognosis in which he died from. The Court enhanced my charge from assault and battery of a high and aggravated nature, to malice murder. Not negligent homicide, or involuntary manslaughter.

Today, I am wrongfully sentenced. I am even more a laymen and rely on jail house litigators to attempt to covey this to the Courts. I do need help with a Pro Bono attorney. Since my incarceration, I have completed substance abuse courses, along with many other skilled courses. If there is anyway my case can be referred to Pro Bono Services, please do so.

Sincerely,

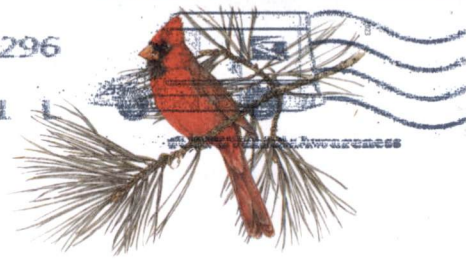

Faren Gibbs, #222138
