Civil Action #: 2010-CP-40-2889

OCT - 4 2013

S.C. Supreme Court

Dear Ms. Gordon:

I was required to re-file an appeal in the above matter on Monday, September 23, 2013. I did so reserving all rights and write this letter likewise reserving same rights.

As I stated in my previous letter to you, the referenced matter was before the Honorable George C. James on a hearing on May 17, 2013, for which you were the court reporter.

This letter is an official request for transcript and copy of the transcript of the May 17, 2013, hearing which I understand will be supplied to Susan Lipscomb, Esquire, on behalf of all attorneys. I'd greatly appreciate your noting in your transcript if any evidence was introduced into the record by opposing counsel.

As for payment I understand this issue has been resolved between you and Susan Lipscomb, Esquire, and also Art Aiken, Esquire, by which Ms. Lipscomb has ordered original and copy of the transcript of the May 17, 2013, hearing and has guaranteed payment to you for the transcript which I hereby reaffirm.

So that there is no confusion, I understand that since the cases were combined for trial, although each of us is making a request, you will be supplying only one transcript with copy and that you will send same to Ms. Lipscomb with guarantee of payment, which I hereby reaffirm.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Very truly yours,

Howard Hammer

Dear Ms. Holmes:

I was required to re-file an appeal in the above matter on Monday, September 23, 2013. I did so reserving all rights and write this letter likewise reserving same rights.

As I stated in my previous letter to you, the referenced matter was before the Honorable George C. James on a hearing on May 1, 2013, for which you were the court reporter.

This letter is an official request for transcript and copy of the transcript of the May 1, 2013, hearing which I understand will be supplied to Susan Lipscomb, Esquire, on behalf of all attorneys. I'd greatly appreciate your noting in your transcript if any evidence was introduced into the record by opposing counsel.

As for payment I understand this issue has been resolved between you and Susan Lipscomb, Esquire, and also Art Aiken, Esquire, by which Ms. Lipscomb has ordered original and copy of the transcript of the May 1, 2013, hearing and has guaranteed payment to you for the transcript which I hereby reaffirm.

Re: Shirley Hammer, Respondent/Defendant vs. Howard Hammer,
Appellant/Additional Defendant on Counterclaim, of whom
Additional Defendant is Appellant;
Civil Action #: 2010-CP-40-2889

Dear Ms. Ambroziak:

I was required to re-file an appeal in the above matter on Monday, September 23, 2013. I did so reserving all rights and write this letter likewise reserving same rights.

I recognize that because the cases were tried all together it is difficult for you to determine what portion is attributable to my appeal (particular part of case applicable thereto). I understand that this problem has been resolved by the correspondence between you and Ms. Lipscomb, Esquire, and also Mr. Aiken, Esquire, by which Ms. Lipscomb has ordered original and copy of all the transcriptions of the trials and hearings to which you were assigned (October trial and January hearing). I also understand per agreement between attorneys with your approval Ms. Lipscomb has made arrangements for and guaranteed payment to you. Accordingly, while I make this request in accord with the Rule I do so with the understanding that in view of the above you will be supplying one transcript and one copy in the above case to be delivered to Ms. Lipscomb on both my and her behalf.

In view of all the correspondence I understand you are satisfied with the arrangements set forth in the abbreviated form above and more fully in the correspondence between you and Ms. Lipscomb and you have proper request and proper guarantee for payment and this confirms my request for transcripts (being sent to Ms. Lipscomb) and the guarantee for payment.

Very truly yours,

Howard Hammer
