Mr. Rivers,

This email responds to your own email regarding the time frame for filing a petition for rehearing and filing fee. Pursuant to Rule 221(a), SCACR, you have 15 days from the date of this Court's opinion to file a petition for rehearing. Additional time for mail is not added, if we do not have a rehearing by the 15th day, the remittitur will be issued pursuant to Rule 221(b). The filing fee for that petition for rehearing is $50.

Yes, please send it to me. I subscribe to justia newsletter where I saw the opinion, however, c-track only shows dispositional opinion and no document icon.

Mr. Rivers,

The copy that you received via email, along with opposing counsel, is all there is to receive. We can send you a paper copy if you'd like but that does not change the due date of any rehearing. Your case is available for viewing on the South Carolina Appellate Case Management System (Public C-Track) which can be found at <https://cas.msc.state.sc.us/cas/public/index>.

The "Public Index" is for the county level courts.

Sincerely,
