S.C. SUPREME COURT

I Alonzo v. Gibson would like The Supreme Court of South Carolina to take into consideration this Pro se Response of my appeal on my PCA of the Bias Prejudice errors found in my copy of the Appendix on Lexington's County Solicitor Ashley Wellman who on page 73, line 21 Q when asked, Do you recall when you found out that he might be committed via "SVP." her response basically on line 23, A on page 73 was that she found out about SVP on the day of my plea on November 30th 2022. But if you go to page 77 starting at line 11, she says, I know one thing that Judge Macaslin and I often do when we are looking at an "SVP" type plea, we go into that during the colloquy and just again, to make sure it's a known and voluntary plea. So therefore Ashley Wellman knew about "SVP," she totally lied and tried to point fingers while denying that she didn't have contact with the ~~the~~ AG's office for "SVP." also my PCA was ~~was~~ filed on grounds that an assault & battery is not a sex offense, Ashley Wellman said it her self in the appendix on page 78, line 6 and line 7, so I was set up in court by Judge Macaslin and Solicitor Ashley Wellman.

Inside this letter is a pro se Response
From: Alanzo V. Gibson
To: The Supreme Court of South Carolina.
