Dear Khee'Asia,

Good afternoon! Please draft a letter as follows:

The Court received

The Court received your email dated March 24, 2025, as well as numerous calls regarding the status of your case. We take this opportunity to remind you that due to the high volume of cases pending before the Court and the need for this office to respond to other callers, we are not always able to respond to your questions immediately. If you wish to communicate with the Court, we ask that you do so in writing. Written communications are the most efficient means for concerns to be considered and addressed by the Court. We also remind you that the sending of remittitur ended appellate jurisdiction in this matter; accordingly, we cannot take any further action in this case.

Warmly,

Jenny
