Appellants reply to the Courts REMITTUR that their replies were incomplete and "...failed to serve and file a corrected appellants initial brief, proof of service for the appellants' initial brief...". Appellants brief addressed all these Court rules and feel their pro se case was not given due consideration based on their filing.

Appellants asked the Court to overrule a lower court ruling in a procedural matter that the lower court miscommunicated Appellants' filings to an old address through the USPS that was not recoverable. Appellants' efforts to fulfill a forced sale is advertised as a simple court proceeding accommodated through a pro se filing.

This submission is submitted for the record.

Appellants:
Porter Bankhead
