Dear Clerk of the Court,

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to respectfully inquire about the current status of my case referenced above, which is before the Court of Appeals.

I would appreciate any updates regarding where we are in the appellate process. Additionally, I would like to ask whether there are any outstanding documents, filings, or actions needed from me at this time to move the matter forward.

Thank you in advance for your attention to this request. Please feel free to contact me at your convenience should you need any further information.

Kind Regards,

Tierra Richberg
