MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION OF DENIAL OF MOTION TO PROCEED IN FORMA
PAUPERIS

COMES NOW the Appellants, Tremaine Golson a/k/a Tremaine D. Golson and Brittney L. Greene a/k/a Brittney L. Golson and respectfully moves this Honorable Court to reconsider its denial of the Appellant’s Motion to Proceed in Forma Pauperis, pursuant to Rule 263, SCACR, and the Court’s inherent authority to reconsider interlocutory rulings, in support of this motion, Appellant states as follows:

On April 7, 2025, this Court issued an order denying Appellant’s Motion to Proceed in Forma Pauperis.

Appellant seeks reconsideration on the grounds that the denial of in forma pauperis status infringes upon a fundamental constitutional right specifically, the right of access to the courts, as guaranteed by the Due Process and Equal Protection Clauses of the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution, as well as corresponding provisions of the South Carolina Constitution.

In Ex parte Martin, 321 S.C. 533, 471 S.E.2d 134 (1995), the South Carolina Supreme Court made clear that the right to proceed in forma pauperis must rest upon either statutory authority or -a constitutional right. Where denial of such status effectively forecloses access to the courts for indigent litigants, the constitutional right is implicated.

Appellant is indigent and lacks the financial resources to pay the required court costs and filing fees associated with this appeal. The denial of the motion effectively deprives Appellant of any meaningful opportunity to seek appellate review.

The United States Supreme Court has long recognized that the right of access to the courts must not be conditioned on a litigant's ability to pay, particularly where fundamental rights are at stake. See Griffin v. Illinois, 351 U.S. 12 (1956); M.L.B. v. S. L. J., 519 U.S. 102 (1996).

Under Rule 240, SCACR, this Court retains the discretion to consider motions, and under Rule 263, SCACR, it may reconsider prior rulings to prevent manifest injustice or the denial of fundamental rights.

Attached hereto is a renewed Affidavit of Indigency, affirming that Appellant continues to meet the criteria for in forma pauperis status.

WHEREFORE, Appellant respectfully requests that this Honorable Court:

- a. Reconsider and reverse its prior denial of Appellant's Motion to Proceed in Forma Pauperis.
- b. Permit Appellant to proceed with the appeal without payment of fees and costs.
- c. Grant such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper in the interest of justice and constitutional fairness.

Respectfully submitted,

s/ Tremaine Golson a/k/a Tremaine D. Golson, Brittney L. Greene a/k/a Brittney L. Golson
