ATTORNEY FOR APPELLANT

Appellant hereby moves pursuant to Rule 263(b), SCACR, for a 7-day extension of the time in which to serve and file the revised final briefs. The grounds for this motion are that there is good cause to grant the requested extension, as the following shows:

1. Appellant's counsel noticed during the drafting of his final briefs that a previously designated document, an affidavit of Appellant, was mistakenly omitted from the previously filed record on appeal. The undersigned's investigation into the mistaken omission concluded that a supplemental record on appeal needed to be created and filed to include the designated document. After obtaining Respondent's consent to file supplement the record, the blanks in the previously filed final briefs were filed in with appropriate citation to the supplemental record on appeal.
2. The final briefs were previously due on Wednesday, April 16, 2025. Due to the errors noticed above, the Appellant's final briefs were filed on April 17, 2025. Appellant humbly requests leave to have filed those one day late as well. If this request is granted, the revised final briefs of Appellant will be due today, Wednesday, April 23, 2025.
3. This is the fifth extension Appellant has requested in this appeal.
4. Counsel for Respondent has been consulted and does not object to this proposed extension of time to serve Appellant's revised final briefs.
5. The undersigned has served this document on opposing counsel by email to registered AIS email address on the date given below.

WHEREFORE Appellant prays for an order extending the time in which to serve and file his final briefs in this appeal by 7 days, to today, Wednesday, April 23, 2025.

April 23, 2025

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Taylor Smith
