RE: Ronnie D. Tyson and Juanita Tyson v. The County of Orangeburg, d/b/a The Regional Medical Center of Orangeburg and Calhoun Counties; The County of Calhoun, d/b/a The Regional Medical Center of Orangeburg and Calhoun Counties; and Gross Family Practice, LLC
C/A No.:2019-CP-38-01314
IRF No.: D0211

Dear Mrs. Harrison:

On March 7, 2025, my office requested the transcript in the above referenced case using the Transcript Portal for online requests. The recording was done via WebEx, but it does not have the option to select WebEx on the online form. It was assigned to Court Reporter Jamie Bickett and she was forwarded the request on March 7, 2025, from TranscriptPortal@sccourts.org. She then reached out to me via email to advise that she had no record of anything being recorded that day and that we would need to request the transcript and remove her name.

The option to do so was unavailable, therefore we printed the form and sent it via email on April 14, 2025, to Transcripts@sccourts.org. On April 17, 2025, we were advised via email that our request had been received and that we should receive communication from a transcriptionist within five (5) days with an estimated cost for production. As of today, we have not received communication from a transcriptionist with a the cost of the transcript or a copy of the transcript.

Yours truly,

S:/Michael C. Tanner

Mr. Tanner,

I received your request for a transcript of a 11-07-24 hearing in the above case number, Tyson v TRMC. However, I have no record of anything being heard on that matter that day. According to the public index, there was a filing made on 11-06-24 in that case, but no hearings were held that day or the next on it. Judge Goodstein was actually handling general sessions matters that week, so this would not have come up.

If you have additional information that I am missing or on which I am in error, please let me know and I'll look into it further.

Thank you.

Jamie Bickett
Official Court Reporter
