RE: State of South Carolina vs. Elliot Brown
Appellate Case No. 2013-001144
Lower Court No. 2011CP2304514
Date: October 9, 2013

Dear, Clerk of Court:

In response to the courts letter dated October 4, 2013 document, Stating that The Supreme Court of South Carolina order attorney Caroline Horlbeck to file a petition for post-conviction relief dated June 11, 2013 on my behalf a document that I, Petitioner, Elliot Brown was never aware or notified that such petition was order by the court. Ms. Horlbeck stated in her last letter to me dated May 24, 2013 "your office have a copy of that document with a letter send on September 30, 2013" she was no longer representing me on my appeal, and to contact the S.C. office of Appellate Defense. In which I, contact thier office by mail requesting to be represented on appeal letter dated June 17, 2013 and

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. This is essential for ensuring the integrity of the financial statements and for providing a clear audit trail. The records should be kept up-to-date and should be accessible to all relevant parties.

2. The second part of the document outlines the procedures for handling discrepancies. It is important to identify any errors as soon as possible and to investigate the cause of the discrepancy. Once the cause has been identified, the necessary steps should be taken to correct the error and to prevent it from recurring.

3. The third part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. This is essential for ensuring the integrity of the financial statements and for providing a clear audit trail. The records should be kept up-to-date and should be accessible to all relevant parties.

4. The fourth part of the document outlines the procedures for handling discrepancies. It is important to identify any errors as soon as possible and to investigate the cause of the discrepancy. Once the cause has been identified, the necessary steps should be taken to correct the error and to prevent it from recurring.

5. The fifth part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. This is essential for ensuring the integrity of the financial statements and for providing a clear audit trail. The records should be kept up-to-date and should be accessible to all relevant parties.

6. The sixth part of the document outlines the procedures for handling discrepancies. It is important to identify any errors as soon as possible and to investigate the cause of the discrepancy. Once the cause has been identified, the necessary steps should be taken to correct the error and to prevent it from recurring.

7. The seventh part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. This is essential for ensuring the integrity of the financial statements and for providing a clear audit trail. The records should be kept up-to-date and should be accessible to all relevant parties.

8. The eighth part of the document outlines the procedures for handling discrepancies. It is important to identify any errors as soon as possible and to investigate the cause of the discrepancy. Once the cause has been identified, the necessary steps should be taken to correct the error and to prevent it from recurring.

9. The ninth part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. This is essential for ensuring the integrity of the financial statements and for providing a clear audit trail. The records should be kept up-to-date and should be accessible to all relevant parties.

10. The tenth part of the document outlines the procedures for handling discrepancies. It is important to identify any errors as soon as possible and to investigate the cause of the discrepancy. Once the cause has been identified, the necessary steps should be taken to correct the error and to prevent it from recurring.

July 21, 2013 only to be told that I had no such appeal pending in court. Before the mentioned documents above I, wrote my concerns to Greenville County Court Clerk requesting clarification on information concerning the reestablishment of my Direct Appeal fearing that I would be charged with such a time delay to file my appeal dated May 21, 2013 respond June 7, 2013

Also, Please find enclosed copies of above mentioned documents and letter.

Therefore, the petitioner request clarification of the totality of my situation with instruction on how to proceed at this point.

I, patiently await your response in this matter, of any pro, se stops allowed by the court to further my appeal proceedings

Sincerely,

Elliott Brown

Case No.2011-CP-23-4514

May 21, 2013

Dear Clerk of Court

My name is ELLIOT BROWN, and I received a correspondence from your office dated May 17,2013, inwhich a response to request for information concerning the reestablishment of my Direct Appeal right, due to granting ineffective assistance of counsel claim.

My request was in the form of concern of not being contacted by the attorney (Caroline Horlberk), whose last communication with me was that she was no longer assigned to my case.

Again I request of the court to therefore appoint me counsel and/or the name and address of suppose counsel appointed to my case because there is none that contacted me concerning my case.

My fear is that I will be charged with time delay inwhich to file my Direct Appeal, with no recourse to my claims.

I respectfully request clear clarafication and instruction of what to do from this court in the matter of my Direct Appeal, because I am not represented by attorney Caroline Horlberk.

Respectfully Submitted
