

LETTER TO UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE FOURTH CIRCUIT

No 25-1169, US Bank National Association v Tracie Green 3:22-cv-04215-SAL

The Defense is in receipt of the following:

1. On April 11, 2025, at 423pm—
  - a. SC Court of Appeals [Clerk Catherine Harrison] 2-page letter acknowledging receipt of 3.21.25 correspondence, citing said Court views the correspondence as a motion to reinstate. Said Court requests appropriate formatting, $50 filing fee, and proof of service within 10 days for the filing to be considered.
  - b. SC Court of Appeals [Clerk Catherine Harrison] 1-page letter acknowledging receipt of 3.24.25, 4.7.25, and 4.8.25 correspondence. In order for Court to consider filings, a motion must be filed according to Rule 240 of the SCARC. No further action to be taken on said correspondences.
2. On April 14, 2025, at 751am---
  - a. Lexington County Courthouse [Judge James Spence] correspondence requesting US Bank National [via Counsel] to file confirmation that June 2, 2025 sale of Defendants home may occur with description indicating why; and there is no stay (state or federal) prohibiting the sale.

Defense Response:

I. To the SC Court of Appeals [Clerk Catherine Harrison]

Your Honor Harrison, since March 21, 2025, my records show I have sent you the following correspondences:
