Marwan,

I need to give this some more thought, but he may have a point regarding email correspondence that was only between counsel, i.e., was not actually sent to the court, in which case, we can just agree to remove it from the designation, as I do not believe it is as important as the email to the judge's law clerk. The email to the judge's law clerk (besides having been sent to the law clerk) was, without question, presented to the court as Exhibit A to the motion to reconsider we filed on October 7, 2024.

We have 10 days from today to file a return in opposition to Buck's motion. I will follow up with you once I've had a chance to give this some more thought.
