v.

State of South Carolina,Respondent.

MOTION TO SUPPLEMENT THE APPENDIX

The Respondent, the State of South Carolina, hereby moves this Court to grant permission to supplement the Appendix with pages of the transcript that were not included in the Appendix submitted by the Petitioner.

Rule 212(b) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules states, "With the written consent of all attorneys of record, a party may supplement the Record on Appeal at any time before argument commences. Without such consent or after argument commences, a party desiring to supplement the Record on Appeal must move the appellate court for leave to do so. In response to that motion, the other party shall designate any supplemental materials which that party desires to add if the court grants the motion."

Pursuant to this Rule, Respondent hereby moves this court to supplement the Appendix with pages 853-856 of the transcript from Petitioner's trial. These pages were not included in the Appendix provided by Petitioner, and Respondent submits they are essential to the case.

Wherefore, having made this Motion to Supplement the Appendix, Respondent would respectfully request this Court grant leave to include pages 853-856 of the transcript.
