Ms. Evans-Pryor,

I am filing the Amended Record on Appeal tomorrow. Over the weekend my regular printer/binder being Staples informed me that the volume at 300 plus pages is too thick to spiral bind as we have been binding in this case and other appeals I am involved with. The technician suggested we could either bind in two volumes or bind via three hole punch in a hard cover binder (school style). Does the Court have a preference or is either prohibited? I have not had this issue previously--the initial record was slightly smaller and fit in one binding.
