

THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
In The Court of Appeals

APPEAL FROM HORRY COUNTY
Court of Common Pleas

The Honorable Dale Van Slambrook, S.C. Circuit Court Judge

Appellate Case No. 2024-001734

OlgaTeslenko, Appellant,
v.
Joe Kocsis and Carpet King & Flooring Respondent.

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO SERVE AND FILE
APPELLANT'S INITIAL BRIEF AND DESIGNATION OF MATTER

Pursuant to Rule 263(b), SCACR, Appellant moves for an extension of time in which to serve and file Appellant's initial brief and designation of matter. Appellant respectfully requests an extension of thirty days to file Appellant's initial brief and designation of matter, which are currently due on May 14, 2025. This is the fourth, and last, request for an extension filed by Appellant.

After the iron injections, Appellant is beginning to feel better, though still rather crippled. But Appellant started being able to sleep, and is now able to follow a clear analysis process for at least short periods of time. Unfortunately, think as she might, Appellant still finds it difficult to define a non-losing strategy for Appellant's brief under the condition of not being able to use Appellant's flashdrive. Just to remind the context of this situation: after this Court's Jan 14 Order which denied the transfer of Appellant's original exhibits to this Court for review, and after the Honorable Clerk's response to Appellant's request for clarification, Appellant was faced with the necessity to design and build a completely new brief. Appellant tried diligently to find a non-losing strategy for this new brief but was unable to find it, mostly because of Appellant's severe anemia at the time. Now, Appellant was able to narrow down to a possibly possible strategy but needs a little more time to formulate it into her brief.

For these reasons, Appellant respectfully requests a thirty-day extension of the deadline for filing and serving Appellant's initial brief and designation of matter, which will make it to be June 11, 2025.

This extension will not prejudice the rights of Respondents.

This motion is in compliance with Rule 240, SCACR.
