SC Court of Appeals

To Whom it may concern,

I, Quentin A. Jean, am writing to inform this Court of any issues preserved for appeal. I believe there are several issues in my case that should only be brought before the Court of Appeal. A few such issues are the suppression of defensive evidence, lack of proper counsel, failure to properly investigate crime scene among a few other things. I believe that these issues provide an arguable basis for appeal, being that they could change the prespective outcome of a trial.
