Good Afternoon,

I just opened and received an official e-mail from Court of Appeals in reference to Huff Creek vs Carolyn Choice TODAY ON MY PERSONAL E-MAIL ACCOUNT.

It was sent to my personal e-mail account which I was unaware and not available to observe right away due to court duties...

Carolyn Choice had complied it seems with a deficiency letter after a DISMISSAL of her appeal had been adjudicated ON 05/05/25.

However, A Writ of Ejectment was successfully completed 05/12/25 as demanded by Plaintiff prior to my knowledge of new written correspondence staying the ejectment.

The Appellant has vacated the rental unit and Plaintiff has successfully recovered as of 05/12/25.

Just to share, I had spoken with Jacqueline, your appeals clerk, and she stated a deficiency document had been presented by Appellant late but had to be reviewed before any determination could be made and she was just relaying the message. Therefore, due to no factual written evidence presented to the court nor to Plaintiffs Attorney halting ejectment, I allowed Writ to proceed.

Please add my court e-mail to all of your correspondence jduckett@greenvillecounty.org so that any and all notifications with timing of the essence will be received & reviewed promptly.

Thank you..

With Many Kind Regards,

Judge Jacquelyn I Duckett
