SC Court of Appeals

Re: Jacqueline E. Ard, Appellant v. Spa on Port Royal Sound
Horizontal Property Regime
Matter: 2025-000648
My Client: Spa on Port Royal Sound Horizontal Property Regime, Respondent

Dear Ms. Staley:

Please allow this letter to serve as notice to this Court [if it was unaware] that Ms. Ard, the Appellant in the above-captioned matter, has filed for bankruptcy. Please see attached. There is also a pending Motion to Set Bond in the lower court to set the amount Ms. Ard must post to keep the property from being sold during her appeal.

We are seeking court guidance. It is our belief that a stay is imposed on both of these actions. We will not be moving the matter forward at the lower court because it is a collection effort; however, we lack the ability to dictate to this Court what does and does not move forward, especially when we are not the appellant, and an appeal is something of a different creature.

Please confirm what we should do about the appeal moving forward. With kindest regards,
I am,

Sincerely,
