Re: Transcript Request form under SCACR Rule 207.
Case no. 2025-000029

Dear Clerk,

Sorry for inconvenience, I've been dealing with some personal, and mental issues lately. I know that's not an excuse to hold up the court. Being that I am not a Counsel nor lawyer, and have been ordered to proceed my case pro, se. The complexity can be a bit overwhelming at times. I'm not apart of any organization, or political party. I have serious trust issues inside this agency. So alot of things are overlooked, or slowly comprehended. do to me looking in the wrong places for answers. I wrote the Anderson county Clerk of Court month's ago, also the Attorney General of South Carolina office with a copy of the request transcript. With no response. So when I recieved the Case no. from your office this past January. I thought it was fraudulent conveyance. As I have been victimized in the current past from the very fraud. In good faith, I hope that you accept my error, and allow my process to proceed. Respectfully Submitted.

This 10th day of March, 2025.

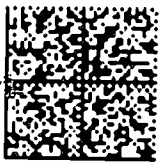

Thank You for your time and consideration.

Dannell J. Gaines, # 346524

P.S. This was actually supose to be done almost a year ago. But I did not recieve my dismissal order from PER Judge 3 1/4 of a year later. In violation of SCACR Rules.
