

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

The State, Respondent,

v.

Margie Brown, Appellant.

Appellate Case No. 2025-000645

---

ORDER

---

On March 31, 2025, Appellant filed an appeal from an order denying her motion to dismiss the criminal charge against her. On April 14, 2025, Respondent filed a motion to dismiss the appeal because the order on appeal is interlocutory and not immediately appealable. Respondent indicated Appellant's criminal charge has not been tried and sentenced. Appellant did not file a return. After careful consideration, we grant the motion to dismiss. See S.C. Code Ann. 14-3-330 (2017) (defining appellate jurisdiction); Ex parte Wilson, 367 S.C. 7, 13, 625 S.E.2d 205, 208 (2005) ("Absent some specialized statute, the immediate appealability of an interlocutory or intermediate order depends on whether the order falls within [section] 14-3-330."); State v. Miller, 289 S.C. 426, 426, 346 S.E.2d 705, 705 (1986) ("In South Carolina, a criminal defendant may not appeal until sentence has been imposed."); State v. Wilson, 387 S.C. 597, 603, 693 S.E.2d 923, 926 (2010) (explaining "the general rule [is] that a defendant may not appeal until after he is convicted and sentenced"). Remittitur will issue in accordance with Rule 221(b) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules.
