STATEMENT OF ISSUES ON APPEAL

The appellant Juanica Woodruff would like for Court of Appeal to review case to be consider for dismissal of case due to findings of what's consider reckless driving in one state may not be consider Reck less driving in another state. If this is considered then Appellant would only have two conviction within a three year period, which would allow Appellant to keep license and maintain job.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

This case come before Administrative Law Court in the matter of Office of Motor Vehicle Hearings pursuant to a request for a contested case filed by Juanica Woodruff. Appellant challenges the determination of the SC Department of Motor Vehicles that I am a habitual offender and the subsequent suspension of driving privileges for five years.
