THIS COURT HEREBY FINDS AND DETERMINES THAT:

A. The findings and conclusions set forth herein constitute this Court’s findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to Rule 7052 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”), made applicable to this proceeding pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9014. To the extent any of the following findings of fact constitute conclusions of law, they are adopted as such. To the extent any of the following conclusions of law constitute findings of fact, they are adopted as such.

B. The findings of fact and conclusions of law set forth herein are disputed by the Asbestos Parties (defined below). Such findings of facts and conclusions of law are hereby made on a temporary and provisional basis only and are subject to paragraph 8 of this Order and further development of the record before this Court. Accordingly, the findings of fact and conclusions of law set forth herein are made in support of the temporary provisional relief granted in this Order only, and shall not be considered binding on the parties for any other purpose.

C. The Motion is granted as provided herein and any objections thereto filed or stated on the record at the Hearing are overruled.

D. The Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to sections 157 and 1334 of title 28 of the United States Code and the Amended Standing Order. This is a core proceeding pursuant to section 157(b)(2)(P) of title 28 of the United States Code.

E. Venue is proper in this district pursuant to section 1409(a) and 1410 of title 28 of the United States Code.

F. The statutory basis for the relief requested consists of sections 105(a), 1519 and 362 of the Bankruptcy Code. Pursuant to section 1519 of the Bankruptcy Code, from the time of filing of the Petition until the Court rules on the Verified Petition, the Court may grant certain relief of a provisional nature.

G. The CCAA Proceeding is pending in Canada and the Petitioner has been authorized by the Debtor to act as foreign representatives (as such term is defined in section 101(24) of the Bankruptcy Code) in this Chapter 15 Case.

H. On May 6, 2025, the Petitioner duly commenced this Chapter 15 Case under chapter 15 of the Bankruptcy Code on behalf of the Debtor.

I. The Petitioner is not required to commence an adversary proceeding to seek the relief requested in the Motion.

J. Based on the pleadings filed to date, the Court concludes that the Petitioner has demonstrated a likelihood of success on the merits of the Verified Petition.

K. The relief sought by the Petitioner in the Motion is authorized under section 1519 of the Bankruptcy Code and the Petitioner has demonstrated that irreparable harm to the Debtor may occur in the absence of the relief sought in the Motion.

L. For purposes of this Order and the relief granted herein, the balance of harms favors granting of the Requested Relief.

M. For purposes of this Order and the relief granted herein, the relief granted services the public interest.

N. To the extent that the relief sought by the Motion may result in any hardship to any parties, such hardship it is outweighed by the benefits of the requested relief to the Petitioner, the Debtor and its creditors.

O. The relief granted hereby is necessary and appropriate in the interests of the public and international comity; it is consistent with the public policy of the United States, and it will not cause the Debtor's creditors or other parties in interest any hardship that is not outweighed by the benefits of granting the relief requested herein.

P. No security is required for the relief granted herein, under Bankruptcy Rule 7065 or otherwise.

Q. All parties in interest will be sufficiently protected by the provisions of section 362.

R. Appropriate notice of the filing of and Hearing on the Motion was given which notice is deemed adequate for all purposes, and no other or further notice need be given.

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AS FOLLOWS:

1. Section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code applies with respect to the Stay Parties and their U.S. Interests; for the avoidance of doubt, the stay will operate to stay and restrain all persons and entities, other than the Petitioner and its agents, from, to the extent related to the Debtor:

- a. commencing or continuing any suit, action, or proceeding against the Stay Parties or their U.S. Interests;
- b. seizing, attaching, enforcing, or executing any judicial, quasi-judicial, administrative or monetary judgment, assessment or order or arbitration award against the Petitioner (in its capacity as the Monitor or Foreign Representative of the Debtor), the Stay Parties or their U.S. Interests;
- c. commencing or continuing any action or proceeding in the United States to create, perfect or enforce any lien, setoff or other claim against the Petitioner (in its capacity as the Monitor or Foreign Representative of the Debtor), the Stay Parties or their U.S. Interests unless otherwise expressly permitted by the Canadian Orders;

- d. seeking the issuance of or issuing any restraining notice or other process of encumbrance with respect to the Petitioner (in its capacity as the Monitor or Foreign Representative of the Debtor), the Stay Parties or their U.S. Interests unless otherwise expressly permitted by the Canadian Orders; and
- e. administering, exercising control over, transferring, encumbering, relinquishing or otherwise using, disposing of, or interfering with any of the Stay Parties' U.S. Interests or agreements in the United States (if any) without the express consent of the Petitioner or as permitted by the Canadian Orders.

2. The Petitioner is hereby recognized, on a provisional basis, as the Foreign Representative of the Debtor and shall have the rights and protections to which the Foreign Representative is entitled under chapter 15 of the Bankruptcy Code, including, but not limited to, the protections limiting the jurisdiction of United States Courts over the Foreign Representative in accordance with section 1510 of the Bankruptcy Code and the granting of additional relief in accordance with section 1519 of the Bankruptcy Code.

3. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 1519(a)(2), the Foreign Representative, on behalf of the Debtor, is authorized to possess and control, and be entrusted with the exclusive control and administration of, the Debtor's U.S. Interests.

4. This Order is without prejudice to the right of the Petitioner to seek additional relief under applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (including, without limitation, section 1519 of the Bankruptcy Code) and without prejudice to the right of the Debtor to seek any remedy or to pursue any further relief.

5. The requirements set forth in Bankruptcy Rule 1007(a)(4)(B) are waived with respect to the relief requested in the Motion, to the extent such requirements have not already been satisfied by the Petition.

6. Notwithstanding any provision in the Bankruptcy Rules to the contrary: (a) this Order shall be effective immediately and enforceable upon entry; (b) the Petitioner is not subject to any stay in the implementation, enforcement or realization of the relief granted in this Order; and (c) the Petitioner is authorized and empowered and may, in their discretion and without further delay, take any action and perform any act necessary to implement and effectuate the terms of this Order.

7. This Order shall remain in full force and effect from the date hereof until the date on which a final determination is made by this Court with respect to the Verified Petition and an order is entered in this Chapter 15 Case giving effect to such determination.

8. Nothing in this Order shall be construed to limit, impair, or otherwise affect or prejudice the rights of (a) Charles Foreman, Chapter 7 Trustee for the estate of National Services Industries, Inc. and his counsel (the "Trustee"), or (b) any other person or entity represented by Cooley LLP in this Chapter 15 Case, including without limitation any asbestos claimant represented by Cooley LLP, (the "Asbestos Claimants" and together with the Trustee, the "Asbestos Parties") to object to, oppose, seek discovery in respect of, or otherwise challenge: (i) the Foreign Representative's Verified Petition and relief requested therein, or (ii) any request by the Foreign Representative, the Debtor, any party, or any party in interest for continuation, modification, or extension of the automatic stay or other relief under any provision of the Bankruptcy Code, including, without limitation, sections 1507, 1519, 1520, 1521, 362, and 105. All such rights, claims, defenses, and arguments are expressly preserved.

9. This Court shall retain jurisdiction with respect to the enforcement, amendment or modification of this Order.
