

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Sandtonyo Barber, #291757, Appellant,

v.

South Carolina Department of Corrections, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2024-002045

ORDER

The Administrative Law Court (ALC) dismissed Appellant's appeal on the basis Appellant did not timely file his Automated Request to Staff Member requesting a prevailing wage. On April 9, 2025, Respondent filed a motion to remand, explaining the ALC did not address the issue of whether Appellant was entitled to prevailing wage funds and asking this court to remand the matter "to the ALC with instructions to remand back to [Respondent] for issuance of a supplemental Step 2 response" then "the issue of Appellant's wage calculations can be addressed and Appellant can separately appeal the issue to the ALC if he so desires." Appellant did not file a return. After careful consideration, we grant Respondent's motion to remand. We hold this appeal in abeyance and remand to the ALC. The ALC shall remand this appeal to Respondent for issuance of a corrected Step 2 grievance response. Respondent shall provide this court with status updates every thirty days.
