

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

Kevin Smith, Petitioner,

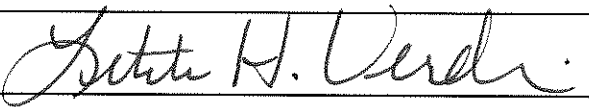

v.

State of South Carolina, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2025-000347

ORDER

By order dated April 25, 2025, this Court dismissed Petitioner's notice of appeal from the denial of his third application for post-conviction relief (PCR) on the grounds it was successive and untimely for failure to provide a sufficient explanation under Rule 243(c), SCACR. The Court also prohibited Petitioner from filing any further PCR applications, habeas corpus petitions, or motions collaterally challenging his 1996 convictions and sentences without first obtaining permission from this Court to do so. Petitioner seeks rehearing of the order. After careful consideration of the petition for rehearing, the Court is unable to discover that any material fact or principle of law has been either overlooked or disregarded. See Rule 221(a), SCACR (providing a petition for rehearing must state with particularity the points supposed to have been overlooked or misapprehended by the court). Therefore, the petition for rehearing is denied.
