Appellant

Appellant/Respondent,

v.

Florence Housing Authority
Respondent

Appellant/Respondent.

MOTION

To whom this may concern, I'm asking the court to waive the fee due to me be disabled and being on a fixed income. This is an emergency. I just had back surgery 7 months ago and I'm facing major hardship and my family is homeless due to my attorney not notifying me of my court date. I would've been there even if

She couldn't make it, but she did not notify me. Please take this in consideration.

To Vanisa Siler Brown,

I Rachel Buie, are writing to release you from representing me and my family against the Florence Housing Authority, because you failed to show up in Court on my behalf, and you did not notify me that my court date was May 13th@2:00. Because of this me and my family is homeless. I called you and texted you multiple time and you did not respond. I have the receipt wherein the Clerk of Court Electronically sent you the Court Date. I and my family was ejected out of our home because of you and I failure to appear. If I had known about this court date, I would have shown up. Thank you for what you have done but I no longer need your service.

Sincerely, Rachel Buie
