Trial Court Case 2020-CP-2605267

Appellate Court Case 2024-001687

---

25th Avenue LLC., Respondent, v . Carol Ann Honeycutt, Appellant

---

AMENDMENT TO THE MOTION TO REINSTATE

---

Appellant prays that this Honorable Court accepts this amendment to the Motion to Reinstate this case, filed May 30, 2025, and that this amendment is approved by this Court. This amendment is added to the Motion to Reinstate as paragraph 9. In addition to the eight paragraph statements in the motion, Appellant prays that this Court will accept the following statement as an important and key factor in approving this motion.

9. This appeal has taken additional time for this novice appellant to complete because there is an added layer to the underlying appeal on the orders. In the Initial Brief, this is referred to as "The Invisible Hand." This additional level is summarized in the following paragraphs.

This entire appeal argues to reverse the three orders which block the Appellant/Defendant from receiving the Complete Transcript of the Motions Hearing of April 24, 2023. The former attorney for the Plaintiff who has no standing in the Horry County Case nor in this appeal has engaged in behind-the-scenes actions to block the Appellant from receiving the benefits of the law to pursue her defense at the county level and her appeal at the Appellate Court level. These extra legal actions involve the power and influence derived by this former attorney's personal relationships with numerous officers of the South Carolina Judicial Branch. These extra legal actions have covered up the illegal actions engaged in to prevent the Appellant from receiving the Complete Transcript for use in these actions at both levels. These extra legal actions fall within violations of criminal statutes and bring severe penalties. It appears that the former attorney's actions are directed at protecting herself and others from criminal prosecution. An incidental by product of these illegal actions is that they aid the Plaintiff by obstructing justice from Appellant.

Appellant believes that the evidence presented in the Initial Brief shows that the former attorney intercepted the transcript ordered by the Defendant, edited out portions of the transcript, and provided the altered transcript to the court reporter to present to the Defendant. On August 30, 2023, the Defendant filed a motion to compel the court reporter to provide the Complete Transcript. That motion was heard on February 21, 2024, was blocked by lies from the attorney before the attorney was fired by the Plaintiff, and was then denied by the court. On March 15, 2024, Defendant filed a motion to complete the hearing of February 21, 2024. On July 10, 2024, Defendant obtained and served a subpoena for the court reporter to attend the hearing of July 24, 2024, as a witness and to bring the Complete Transcript with her. The attorney, dismissed by the Plaintiff sometime prior to April 24, 2024, went to Chief Justice Beatty of the South Carolina

Supreme Court and had the subpoena quashed without a motion to quash and without a hearing to quash. The second motion to compel was heard on July 24, 2024, and again, denied. The attorney, present at that hearing did not participate except to be heard on the Plaintiff's motion to dismiss her. The motion to dismiss the attorney was granted. On August 12, 2024, Defendant filed a motion to reconsider. That motion was denied on September 3, 2024. On October 2, 2024, Defendant filed the present appeal, Appellate case Number 2024-001687.

The Appellant/ Defendant prays that this Court grants the Motion to Reinstate and this Amendment to the Motion to Reinstate and accept the Initial Brief and Designation of Matter in this case.
