DISCIPLINARY COUNSELRe: Doris F. Atkinson and William E. Atkinson, Jr. v. James A. Williams, Jr., M.D., and South Carolina Oncology Associates
(Appellate Case No. 2013-000057)

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

Please note I wanted to provide you with an update involving the Atkinson trial transcript. We received the transcript in the Atkinson case today. I have attached copies of the emails between Attorney Corbin and the Ms. Brenda Sigwald, court reporter, involving the transcript. See copies of today's email transmissions attached hereto as Exhibit A. If you have any questions, please let us know.

Thank you; and, with warm regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

Christina B. Stewart

Hi, Brenda.

Thanks for the email about the original transcript which you mailed in a large box to the Corbin Law Firm post office box address a couple weeks ago via USPS.

I never got the box containing the transcript until this morning. After you sent the email stating it was mailed to me a couple weeks ago, I went to the post office to investigate. Other mail was in the Corbin Law Firm postal box, but nothing else. I went to the front window and told the postal clerk that someone sent me a large box weeks ago and I never got it. I had never gotten any notice of a large box delivered to my post office box.

The postal clerk went into the back and brought out a beaten up box (which contains the transcript). The box had a hand-written receipt date of October 1, 2013. The clerk gave me the box and I left. After getting back to my office, I noticed that the postal clerk should have gotten me to sign the receipt as proof of the date on which I actually got the package. I was not asked to sign anything.

Sorry about the confusion. I now have the original transcript in the Atkinson case. The missing transcript mystery has been solved!

I appreciate all of your hard work!

Thanks,

Daryl.

Very strange. My receipt has 29503 as the ZIP. The tracking from USPS has that it was available for pickup at 29501 on September 30 and then it was available for pickup at 29503 on October 1.

Here is the tracking No so you can look at it: 9114901123086515928249.

Please keep me posted on this!!!

Street address is fine. I hate to be difficult, but can you double check because depending on which address you sent it to it may be sitting at one of two post offices.

Thanks!!
Christina

Probably the street address. Is that bad?

Hi Christina!

You should have gotten the original of the transcript weeks ago. It was in a BIG box. I mailed it on the 19th.

Did you get the electronic one that I emailed to you?

I sure don't want to have to print this again, but I will if I need to. I will try to check with the Post Office today also.
