Re: Lauren Chambers Tracy v. Elijah Osama Mustafa
Appellate Case No. 2025-000403

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

Appellant Elijah Osama Mustafa's initial brief and designation of matter are currently due on 20, 2025. Appellant Mustafa respectfully requests a ten (10) day extension of time to file his initial brief and designation of matter. This is Appellant Mustafa's third request for an extension of these deadlines, and Appellant does not anticipate any further extension requests.

The request is premised on technical difficulties occurring with the undersigned's law firm. Since the early morning of June 18, 2025, the undersigned's law firm's electronic file system has been inaccessible. In consultation with technology professionals, this issue may not be resolved in advance of June 20, 2025 (the current due date). Because necessary documents relating to the initial brief are contained in the electronic files, in light of these extraordinary and unanticipated circumstances, Appellant requests an additional extension in this matter. If the Court grants this extension, the new deadline for Appellant Mustafa's initial brief and designation of matter will be June 30, 2025.

Appellant's counsel has consulted with Respondent's counsel regarding this request. Respondent's counsel indicated that Respondent graciously consents to this request. Appellant's check for the filing fee in the amount of $50.00 will be hand delivered to the Court in the required time frame for filing. Thank you for your consideration of this extension request.

Sincerely,

TURNER PADGET GRAHAM & LANEY P.A.
