Dear Clerk of Court, and Court of Appeals;

I am following up once again regarding my pending Emergency Motion for Post-Execution Stay and Restoration of Possession, originally submitted and acknowledged on June 9, 2025 and June 10, 2025.

Earlier today, I received notice that the attached filing was allegedly missing from the prior email submission. In response, I immediately resent the full filing package today to ensure your office has received all necessary documents for review.

However, to date, I still have not received any ruling, order, or confirmation of review regarding my Emergency Motion. This matter remains extremely time-sensitive, as I continue to face irreparable harm, including potential loss of personal property and displacement involving my minor children. Multiple emergency filings have been submitted timely, and I respectfully request confirmation that my filings are now fully received, docketed, and under judicial review.

At this point, I am becoming deeply concerned about the lack of resolution, delay in processing, and the serious risk these delays are creating for my family. I have made every effort to comply with all procedural rules, filing requirements, and communication protocols. My emergency motion remains pending and unaddressed.

Please advise on the current status of my motion, and whether this matter has been formally placed before the appellate panel for urgent consideration.

Respectfully,

Terry Clark
